Candy Davis/Jim Burdick moved to approve a one-year lease of the Vet's building rental to Edgerton Children's Center with the addition that the tenant maintains the shrubs. The motion was withdrawn

Tom Wirth, 410 First St stated concerns about the noise from the children on the playground at the Children's Center. He said the children are outside from 8:30-11:45 and then from 12:30-5:00. He also stated that the lawn is mowed on Sundays and feels this is a disruption.

Cathy Engler, owner of Edgerton Children's Center and tenant in the Veteran's Building, stated the Wisconsin State child care guidelines encourage children to be outdoors more than in the past. The center rotates age groups on the playground. She stated she is willing to work with the neighbors and group a couple of the age groups together so as to cut back on the amount of time the playground is in use. She is also willing to work with the mowing times so it will not be disruptive to the neighbors.

Cathy Engler requested the Council negotiate the lease agreement before passing it.

Debbie Olson moved to table the lease until the next meeting. The motion died for a lack of a second.
